MEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

WITHIN the covers of this book is a record of your four years in Medford High School. It is the only thing that, in the future, will bring back old memories; keep it and guard it. We hope in later years it will be a source of great pleasure and enjoyment to you in recalling old scenes and former companions in M. H. S.

J. Stevens Kadesch

Headmaster

HE has given his time and thought to bring Medford High School up to the high standing which it enjoys to-day. He has enthusiastically supported all the school activities of the past four years. Under his guidance and direction, the students have endeavored to uphold the high ideals for which M. H. S. has always stood.

FACULTY

Faculty

IT is with great regret that we come to the parting of the ways with the Faculty of M. H. S., through whose untiring efforts and patience we find ourselves better fitted to meet the demands of our new life.

ABBOTT

ADAMS

ALBRIGHT

ALDENBERG

HERBERT C. ABBOTT

"Herb". Biography Aid; Football. A proof of the saying, but this time it is "laugh and the class laughs with you". His good nature cheered many a crowd.

ROBERT G. ADAMS

"Bob". "Blue and White" Staff; "Lightnin"; Glee Club; Dramatic Club; Debating Club. You cannot put anything over on this "judge". All criticisms are overruled.

VIVIAN M. ALBRIGHT

"Ding". Certainly lives up to her name. Her personality ever shines among her classmates. We hope she will soon become "all bright".

LYDIA P. ALDENBERG

"Lyd". "Blue and White" Staff. It must be true that good things come in small packages. What could we have done without this cheerful cashier in the lunch room?

CLAIRE F. AMABILE

"Clary". Biography Aid; Dramatic Club.

So cheerful and sweet,
She's a pleasure to meet.

KENNETH T. AMES

"Ken". Glee Club. His smile, together with his earnestness of purpose, will win him a full measure of success.

ANNA J. ANDOLINO

"Anne". She belongs to the quiet group, but oftentimes a good listener is worth more than a talker.

PETER J. ANGELERI

"Pete". A quiet unassuming fellow, but one who can prove his worth when necessary, especially on the gym floor.

AMABILE

AMES

ANDOLINO

ANGELERI

ARCARO

ARDINI

BAILEY

BAKER

FRANCIS E. ARCARO

"Frank". Biography Aid. No spare moments had he, He worked and worked some more With his compass and his pen He did math problems by the score.

ELEANOR R. ARDINI

"El". The girl with the "Iodent" smile. Yet we all agree that she has certainly gathered "troops of friends" and won the admiration of them all.

RUTH BAILEY

"Ruthie". We expect Ruth to keep exact records of this class, as she found the study of history so enjoyable.

STANLEY BAKER, JR.

"Stan". He likes to write sea stories—not necessarily fish stories—never liked to be in the limelight; he has a strong aversion to front seats.

WALLACE J. BALL

"Wally". Executive Committee "Blue and White"; Track Manager; Dramatic Club. Debating Club. The fellow with a real "Colgate Smile". We're glad to say he survived the arduous tasks of "manager".

ANTHONY BARTHOLOMEW

"Bart". Football. An honor student in Auto Engineering. We expect to ride in one of his "cars" soon.

OLIVE BARTLETT

"Lol". College Club; Biography Aid; Dramatic Club; Dramatic Club. "Lol" is the girl we like to have with us—to ask questions, but she always does brighten up a crowd. Maybe that's why she is such a good club member.

AVIS N. BEARD

"Av". Debating Club; Class Note Aid. Avis joined us her senior year. She soon fitted in with us, however, by winning prizes in the essay contests. At that game she was a positive winner! We should have profited by her lesson in "Thrift".

BALL

BARTHOLOMEW

BARTLETT

BEARD

BEEBE

BERG

WILLIAM R. BEEBE

"Bee". A first-class sprint artist. His running grin won many victories for the Medford High School Track Team.

ALLEN W. BENSON

"Ren". He aspires to become a jazz king or a dancing master. We wish him luck!

RUSSELL O. BERG

"Russ". A quiet lad of very few words. His heated arguments in history, room 14, were an unfailing source of pleasure to Miss Smyth.

HARRY A. BERRY

"Gus". "Gus" and his friend, "Bee", were the self-starters in the auto engineering class.

ALICE W. BICKFORD

"Al". "Blue and White" Staff; College Club; Dramatic Club.

She's the kind of girl that's Always sweet,
And always neat,
While at Latin
She can't be beat!

As a matter of fact, they're both Latin stars. That's a special privilege of theirs!

MARION P. BICKFORD

"Mar". "Blue and White" Staff; College Club; Secretary, Dramatic Club. Girls will be girls; boys will be boys; while twins will be twins! We all agree on that. Just try to tell the Bickford twins apart. We know one thing, Marion makes a very capable secretary.

HAZEL A. BLAIR

"Zel". Class Note Aid. A "part-time worker". Misnamed—Hazel works all the time.

EVELYN BOARDMAN

"Ev". "Review" Staff; College Club; Class Note Aid. We all know how much she liked to draw and dream; we, also, know what a favorite she was in IV-A Latin!

BICKFORD

BICKFORD

BLAIR

BOARDMAN

BOLGER

BORTMAN

BOWLING

BROWN

MARGARET BOLGER

"Peg". Had we known what an able assistant "Peg" was in the printing department, she would have had this job.

CLARA BORTMAN

"Borty". Class Note Aid.
Your sunny disposition
And your curly sun-kissed hair
Is a combination
Sought for everywhere.

LILLIAN F. BOWLING

"Lil".
A voice more sweet,
Appearance so neat,
A girl more kind,
One would never find.

CATHERINE M. BROWN

"Kay". Class Note Aid; College Club;
Dramatic Club; Basketball.
Always a laugh, always a smile,
The only way we ever saw "Kay".
We never missed a chance to join,
Especially in Physics IV-A.

DORIS M. BROWN

"Dot". Biography Aid; Household Arts Club.

Doris had much trouble
Up in the sewing room.
We hope she will finish the hat
And wear it very soon.

RUTH M. BUCKLEY

"Buckie".
A steady plodding "gal",
The best girl for a real pal.

RUTH B. BURNHAM

"Ruthie". "Blue and White" Staff;
President College Club; Dramatic Club; "Lightnin"; Basketball. Hockey.
Not one we could put Into a class of dubs,
For she has been too active
In her part, as "Queen of Clubs".

EDWARD F. CALDWELL

"Red". College Club.
We asked the crowd just what to say
About this lad, we found so gay.
So much was said of his broad grin
There was nothing left to say of him.

BUCKLEY

CALDWELL

CAMPBELL

CANTY

CARCIONE

CAREW

EDITH CAMPBELL

"Eddie". Edith means happiness. We hope you will have lots of it.

DOROTHY C. CANTY

"Dot". To see her merry smile once is to like her always.

LOLLY CARCIONE

"Lolly". Orchestra; Class Note Aid. Hard work and close application have produced an "astonishing improvement" in French.

ALICE G. CAREW

"Al". "Lightnin"; Dramatic Club. One thing we know for sure, She's "sober, steadfast, and demure".

JAMES J. CAREW

"Jim". Basketball. If you want to know something of "Jim" as he really is, ask the basketball fellows.

NICHOLAS E. CATINO

"Nick". He believed in trying, and trying again. He won out, too. Look at his good record.

ADELINE H. CENTER

"Addie". You're the idol of our hearts —Sweet Adeline—when posing for the class picture.

CLARA L. CHAPMAN

"Chappie". College Club; Dramatic Club; Publicity Aid for "Lightnin"; Class Poet.
Poetry by "Chappy"
And all her pictures, too,
Make us all feel snappy
When her art we view.

CAREW

CATINO

CENTER

CHAPPELLE

CLARK

CLARK

GLADYS V. CHAPMAN

"Glad". Everyone is "Glad" to see "Glad—ys.

OLIVE L. CHAPPELLE

"Cleo". Field Hockey; Basketball; Debating Club; College Club; Glee Club; Dramatic Club; Biography Aid. Where did she get the time to join all these clubs? We thought she giggled all the time!

BETH CLARK

"Betty". College Club; Dramatic Club; "Lightnin'"; "Review" Staff; "Blue and White" Staff. Dignified, sweet little Beth, always willing to do something for everybody.

MARY M. CLARK

"Clarkie". She has learned the laws of economics. Now she gets her lessons in half the time.

JAMES F. COLLERAN

"Jim". "Blue and White" Staff. A more reliable fellow is not to be found. To ask him to do anything is to have it done.

WALTER C. CONDON

"Walt"; "Harry". We heard he was the senior with nicknames; he is so modest he refused to divulge the others.

JAMES C. CONNORS

"Jim". We are sure of one of your feats, "Jim". No matter what the distance, he could dash 'round the corner into room 13 before the last stroke of the bell.

GRACE R. CONWAY

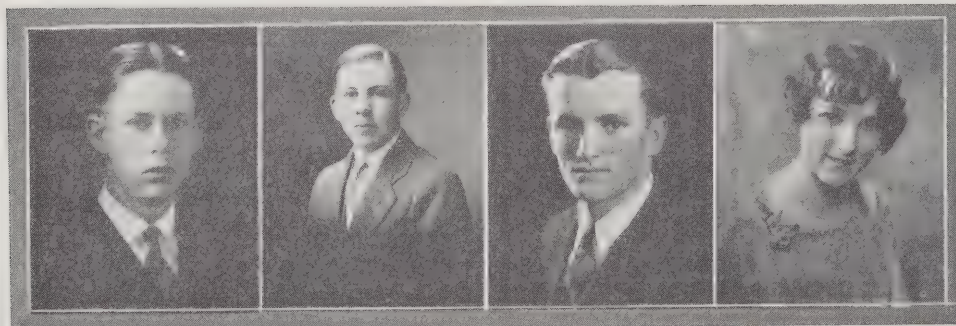

"Conny". Class Note Aid; Basketball. "Conny" was ever Gracious And her giggle, contagious.

COLLERAN

CONDON

CONNORS

CONWAY

COOK

COOKSON

COSTELLO

COYNE

SUSAN C. COOK

"Sue"; "Cookie". Glee Club; Basketball. "Cookie" was certainly a live wire at basketball, and a regular sport to take a chance at reading shorthand when no one else would.

CHARLES I. COOKSON

"Irving"; "Cook". If the last nickname is true, we shall be ready at any time with our appetites, especially if he does as good a job as he does in other things.

ARTHUR A. COSTELLO

"Art". Dramatic Club. The kind of fellow that can be depended on to do or to say the right thing in the class room.

EILEEN M. COYNE

"Leen". She certainly was full of facts; when it came to history she was not often stumped.

MARGARET CRAWFORD

"Peg". Class Note Aid; Mandolin Club. College Club; Dramatic Club; Glee Club. When she is a Latin teacher, we hope that she will not have papers written on, "Not what I said, but why I said it".

SUSIE M. CRIVELLI

"Sue". A girl with a serious look but a friendly disposition; a splendid typist with oodles of certificates.

CYRIL CRONIN

"Cy". Math and dancing never seem to go together, but we understand "Cy" is good at both.

VERA A. CRONIN

"Verie". Normal School Club. A patient listener in IV-A English.

CRAWFORD

CRIVELLI

CRONIN

CRONIN

CROSBY

CROWLEY

CROY

CURCIO

ROBERT H. CROSBY

"Bob". Track; College Club; Basketball. A real thinker, but what makes him do so much thinking in school; we wonder.

JOHN J. CROWLEY

"Joe". Dramatic Club; Glee Club; Cheer Leader; "Lightnin"; "The Champion"; Biography Aid. In all the undertakings that he undertook, Joe did most of the work. He was as good a helper as he was a cheer leader.

WALLACE L. CROY

"Wally". Although he grew to "man's estate" rather young, he is still a boy at heart.

HELEN L. CURCIO

"Curshy". As quiet as a mouse. Others may have duplicates, but we are proud of our original.

HARRIET E. CURRAN

"Harry". Biography Aid. Any teacher of English, who cannot read a paper so that the class can understand, should call on "Harry". We know that she could do it.

EDITH M. DAHLSTROM

"Edie". Biography Aid. The girl with the smile as long as her name.

FRANCES P. DAVIS

"Franke". President Debating Club; Dramatic Club; College Club; Chairman Publicity Committee "Brewster's Millions"; "Lightnin"; Class Note Aid; School News Editor, "Review". The intellectual stimulus of IV-A English. If you stop to look, you must listen.

CONCETTA J. DeBENEDICTIS

"Connie". Connie was an excellent scholar and a real friend.

CURRAN

DAHLSTROM

DAVIS

DeBUERIIS

DELANEY

DINCOLO

DISTEFANO

ALBERT L. DeBUERIIS

"Al". Smiles and witty remarks are "Al's" greatest assets.

ANNA M. DELANEY

"Smiles". Class Note Aid. She had a sunshiny personality and smile; never appeared to be worried about her lessons; always pulled through good-naturedly any difficulty which arose.

JAMES DINCOLO

"Dink". Football. Everybody loves a fat man—except the opposing players.

ROSE G. DiSTEFANO

"Rosie". Lessons never bothered her, nor made a frown appear on her face.

ROBERT E. DOE

"Bob". "Blue and White" Staff; Glee Club; Debating Club; Dramatic Club; "Pocahontas"; "Lightnin"; "The Champion". A business-like preoccupied person, always rushing here and there. Never mind, "Bob" is one of the few pupils who has written a play, directed it, and produced it in his own school.

MAY E. DONAHUE

"Maizie". Household Arts Club. "Maizie" is one of singular persons who is always on time—never found her to fail anyone.

PETER B. DONAGHUE

"Pete". Track; Baseball Manager. He did "manage" to get into room 13 after recess every day, but he "managed" to do other things—cleverly, too.

MARGUERITE P. DRUMMEY

"Marg". Assistant librarian—systematic as could be—not a day could our books be overdue.

DOE

DONAHUE

DONAGHUE

DRUMMEY

DRURY

DUFFEE

DUFFY

DUNBAR

CONSTANCE DRURY

"Connie". Household Arts Club; Class Note Aid. "Connie" always did happen to get in at the last moment. Never mind "Connie" you did good work when you did get there.

MADELINE G. DUFFEE

"Mad". What a strange nickname for a girl so joyous and cheerful as "Mad"!

MARY A. DUFFY

"Duff". Her stories were such a delight and so clever that we know we shall soon see her name in all the magazines.

MILDRED L. DUNBAR

"Mil".
Busy, busy "Mil".
She gave us all our fill
Down at the lunch counter.

MARY G. DUNN

"Smiles". "Blue and White" Staff; Hockey. Basketball; College Club; Mandolin Club; Glee Club. We all knew her to be a regular sport and a most active girl in all sports.

GEORGE E. DYSON

"Dy". "Blue and White" Staff. One of the best male typists in the class. We would expect that of him—that's his type.

EDWARD J. EGAN

"Eddie". Football; Baseball. Even if he did have such luck, getting hit so many times, he made a good hit in sports.

NEIL A. ELDER

"Neilly". Class Note Aid; College Club; Dramatic Club; Orchestra; "Lightnin"; Debating Club. "Neilly" always argued well in his own favor, but we doubt if his hearers got the point.

DUNN

ELLIS

ENGLE

FARNHAM

MARJORIE N. ELLIS

"Marge". "Blue and White" Staff; Basketball; Hockey; College Club; Dramatic Club; "Review" Staff. A girl with a smile like hers cannot help but capture our hearts, and that is just what she has done.

KATHRYN ENGLE

"Kay". Class Note Aid. Dramatic Club; Glee Club; Basketball; College Club; Field Hockey. "Kay" hasn't much to say, but what she does say is worth saying. She is always ready to lend a hand.

LOUISE A. EVANS

"Jackie". Biography Aid; Household Arts Club; Dramatic Club. The errand-goer of the Household Arts Club, what will it do without her?

ALBERT N. FARNHAM

"Al". Chairman Executive Committee "Blue and White" Staff; "Lightnin"; "Brewster's Millions"; College Club; Dramatic Club. He worked with all his might, To help make this book right; An unselfish, active sport Whom the fellows call a good sort.

HELEN V. FIELD

"Fieldie".
There are groves and goves,
But this little field
Prefers the best yield
Of a gove to a grove.

ALBERT L. FITZPATRICK

"Al".
It's you know me, Al
The reciprocal
And I know you, Al
So I'll be your pal.

AUDREY C. FOREST

"Aud". Dramatic Club. We'd never agree to spelling it "O-d-d".

VELMA J. FORWARD

"Vel". Class Note Aid; Dramatic Club. A quiet sort of girl is "Vel". But what she did, she did it well.

FROST

FURST

GEORGE M. FOSTER

"Georgie".
On good breakfast food he dines,
Yet still for Kellogg's he pines.

MATHILDA FREED

"Hilda". Girl's Debating Club. You cannot deny that Mathilda is a good debater if you know anything about debating.

VERNER A. FROST

"Frosty". "Blue and White" Staff; "Lightnin'"; Dramatic Club; Debating Club. Though his name sounds cold, where he was, was never frosty.

JOSEPH C. FURST

"Joe".
True to his colors of Furst,
Joe always came in first.

RUTH H. GANNON

"Ga". Basketball; Dramatic Club.
When basketballs came from Ruth
Gannon,
They came as if fired from a cannon.

A. THERESA GARRITY

"Tess". Class Note Aid; Dramatic Club.
A little girl is "Tess",
But we cannot like her less.

ELINOR H. GENTHNER

"Galli". Glee Club. A "Galli" Curci in the making.

ALMA B. GESANG

"Al". Dramatic Club; Debating Club.
"Al" has a leaning toward the mechanical, but her aspirations to improve a typewriter were a failure.

GANNON

GARRITY

GENTHNER

GILLESPIE

GILLIS

GILLIS

GOLDEN

HELEN C. GILLESPIE

"H". Household Arts Club; Dramatic Club; Glee Club. A real copyist—her loose-leaf note-book a work of art—she loved to do it!

HELEN GILLIS

"Tiny". Tiny? Maybe but, oh my! You all know about good things in small measures.

MILDRED L. GILLIS

"Milly". Biography Aid; Basketball; Household Arts Club. Milly aims high, but jumps higher. Ask the basketball team.

EILEEN A. GOLDEN

"Billo" Class Note Aid. "Billo" is a quiet miss, but a strong defender of "class rights", and will not be over-worked. Three cheers for our champion.

R. STANLEY GOVE

"Stan". According to "Stan", he possesses qualities admired by all. These show best when he is surrounded by fields.

MURIEL GRANT

"Muggles". Biography Aid; Dramatic Club; Debating Club; "Saxophobia" has had no ill effects on the scholarship of "Muggles". She was one of the Commercial Stars.

ADELE M. GRAVES

"Del". Basketball. How fortunate for "Del" that she drew a back seat in the home room! No social hours in the front seats.

CHARLOTTE E. GREENLEAF

"Lottie". Glee Club. From all indications "Lottie" will make an A-1 secretary

FRANCIS J. GRIFFIN

"Frank". A model pupil, Wednesday, fourth period in the library.

GERARD P. GRIFFIN

"Gerry".
Got by in French,
Knew his history, too,
More than most of us could do.

ELIZABETH GROSE

"Beth". Household Arts Club; Glee Club.
Not a sound would she make,
Even tho we had an earthquake.

EVA M. GUSTAFSON

"Eve". Class Historian; Executive Committee "Blue and White"; College Club; Glee Club; Dramatic Club; "The Champion".
Never a class
Had such a lass,
Who had so much grace
And so fair a face.

CHARLES N. HADLEY

"Charlie". Biography Aid; Track. We know he will succeed. His determination to win, everybody knows.

NORMAN D. HALL

"Hallie". Glee Club.
In large crowds,
Our friend, Hall,
Reaches the clouds
Because he's tall.

NORMAN H. HANDLEY

"Hon". Baseball Team. We'd like to get his friends in the rear of Room 14 to tell us some good things about him.

KATHLEEN G. HANLEY

"K". College Club; Mandolin Club; Dramatic Club; Review Staff; "Blue and White" Staff.
There isn't a thing she couldn't do
A thorough sport through and through
But still our wonder grew
That one small head could carry all she knew.

"Pat". Basketball; Swimming Team.
Pat's best pass
Is in history class
Although times score or more
He exits by the left-hand door.

RICHARD A. HARLOW

"Dick". "Blue and White" Staff. Football. He's the most ambitious lad. At a recent test which he took, he amazed his classmates by the honors that he won. We expect that "Dick" will continue the good work.

ELSIE L. HARMON

"Skid". The girl that can be seen, and not heard. A very good trait—at times.

EDWARD N. HARTY

"Ed". "Lefty". Manager Football; Dramatic Club; "Lightnin"; Baseball; "Blue and White" Staff. "Ed" will be missing on the gridiron next fall,—but the water buckets won't.

ARTHUR J. HARTY

"Archie". Biography Aid. Reports are that Harty has really grown up. What will he do now that he is a man?

ELVIRA L. HARTY

"Vi". "Vi" looks meek and submissive but experience has shown us that looks are sometimes deceiving.

RUTH E. HASKINS

Household Arts Club. Ruth is making a thorough study of Household Management. What's her reason?

HARRIET K. HAWORTH

"Harry". Class Note Aid. Captain of Field Hockey Team. Harriet's ambition is to become a nurse. Who wouldn't be sick with Harriet for a nurse?

"Lil". "Lily". Outing Club; Glee Club. Lillian is one of the typists who survived the Underwood tests.

MILDRED S. HEALY

"Mil"; "Pinkie". Dramatic Club; College Club; Basketball; "Blue and White" Staff. "Mil" doesn't have to talk, her manner and charm speak for themselves.

HELEN K. HENDERSON

"Hellie". Work is a blessing. Helen believes this, too.

MAURICE S. HERBERT

"Yicka". Track. He hasn't equaled Charlie Hoff's record yet, but we expect him to do so soon.

ALICE H. HILLQUIST

"Al". Household Arts Club; Dramatic Club. The girl who gets the blame for all the noise in Room 15. It's a shame.

HAROLD B. HOBSON

"Hobby". "Hobby" doesn't need to make any noise. His flivver makes enough for both of them.

MARY M. HAGAN

"May". College Club; Normal Club. Quiet and true, A conscientious student, too.

DOROTHY M. HOLDEN

"Dotty". Household Arts Club; Dramatic Club; Glee Club. A girl who's sweet, One pleasant to meet Quiet and demure, But a friend for sure.

HOWLAND

MILDRED E. HOLLAND

"Bunnie". The girl who is always ready for a good time whether at the typewriter or at play.

WILBUR G. HOLLINGSWORTH

"Holly". Track. He has all the earmarks of a clever lawyer. We are glad he has chosen that profession.

STUART W. HOLLIS

"Stew". Class Note Aid. That school girl complexion is a result of summer camping, we are sure.

HERBERT V. HOWLAND

"Herb". Football; Track. A howling good bowler; we wish he started that activity in school.

GERALDINE HUTCHINSON

"Gerry". Normal School. A Girl Scout headed for the Normal School to learn school room scouting.

AGNES B. JACK

"Jackie". A girl who came among strangers in her senior year from Pinkerton Academy, Derry, N. H. We hope that she has enjoyed our school as much as we enjoyed her being with us.

DOROTHY E. JACKSON

"Dot". Household Arts Club; Dramatic Club; Glee Club; College Club. Her winning ways won and kept a host of friends.

HAROLD C. JACKSON

"Al". He was so quiet that he would not tell us one thing about himself.

JOHNSON

JOHNSTON

ALICE M. JEWETT

"Al". Basketball; College Club;
"Lightnin"; Biography Aid. We want to change the last two letters in her name to an "I". That's what we think of "Al".

BERTHA W. JOHNSON

"Bert". Dramatic Club.
To the latest fashions
She's an addict
With her classy boyish bob,
She has won a mob
Of admirers.

GEORGE N. JOHNSON

"Ben". Class Photographer.
Ben is not a flapper,
But he is a snapper.

MILROY JOHNSTON

"Fat". Milroy is no killjoy.

LILLIAN R. KAPLAN

"Lil". Glee Club; Class Note Aid
Kind, helping, and true
To everyone she knew

GEORGE A. KEE

"Keesie". Football.
He makes all the girls glad
This "Arrow Collar" ad.

BARBARA A. KELLOGG

"Bab". Good-natured, a good sport, and full of pep,—that's "Bab".

IRA F. KELLEY

Such good manners and mind
As in this little thoroughbred
No more need be said.

ALICE M. KENNEY

"Al". Biography Aid.
Cheerful and happy all the year round,
Always looks up, and never looks down.

IDA G. KERTZMAN

"I". Household Arts Club.
Always winning,
Always grinning,
Always feeling fine.

KATHERINE B. KILROY

"Kath". Class Note Aid. Household
Arts Club.
Did you ever see the crowd around "Kath"?
Not a trace of gloom it hath.

RICHARD D. KIMBALL

"Dick". Orchestra; Glee Club; Debating Club; Dramatic Club; "Review" Staff. The high school electrician. What Mr. Merrill didn't know, "Dick" did.

LEO B. KIRK

"Kirkie"; "Lee". Football. Joined our ranks senior year. Never kicked in the classroom, but what he did on the gridiron, everybody knows.

FLORENCE LANDERS

"Flossie". Basketball; Hockey; Household Arts Club; "Lightnin". She can take a turn at acting, cooking, and playing—a good combination!

VIOLA M. LANIGAN

"Vi". The girl who kept us guessing, but who knew everything to "file".

MARIAN LAWRENCE

"Mar". Hockey; Household Arts Club; Dramatic Club.

Brown eyes that are never blue
Make a friend that's always true.

RUSSELL J. LeBOSQUET

"Russ". Glee Club; Dramatic Club; Orchestra; College Club; Mandolin Club; "Pocahontas"; "Lightnin"; Electrician. That indefinable, indescribable something in character is the trait that "Russ" possesses.

DOROTHY B. LEE

"Dot". Glee Club; Normal Club. "Dot's" sweet personality and smile full of cheer, Became known very quickly when she entered our junior year.

LUCY LEIB

"Low". Dramatic Club; Biography Aid; College Club. She's a shark at geometry, but no fish.

ALICE M. LENNON

"Al". College Club; Glee Club; Normal Club; Class Note Aid.

Charming, pleasant, and sincere,
In fact, she is a perfect dear.

GLADYS L. LEWIS

"Gladdie". Biography Aid. We shall always remember "Gladdie" for her cheery smile as she beamed over the milk and roll at recess.

WALTER S. LITCHFIELD, JR.

"Brud". "Review" Staff; "Blue and White" Staff. We don't have to go to "Ocean Bluffs" to get the real thing.

HAZEL E. LOCKHART

"Brownie". Glee Club; Dramatic Club. The night was not long enough for "Brownie's" sleep. She needed the whole twenty-four hours.

WARREN F. LOONEY

"War". Associate Editor "Blue and White"; College Club.
No opportunity will he miss
A gentleman that's built like this.

ROBERT LOVELAND

"Bob". College Club; Biography Aid.
When better radios are made, Loveland will make them—in spite of his French.

JEREMIAH J. McCARTHY

"Jerry". "Jerry" is forever riding the girls. Evidently his size is no handicap to his personality.

JAMES McCARTY

"Mac". Dramatic Club; Class Note Aid. Though he uses his left hand he does all things right.

MARGARET V. McCUSKER

"Peg". "Tell me who your chum is and I shall tell you what you are".
Enough said for "Peg".

ARTHUR L. McDERMOTT

"Art"; "Mac". Senior Class President; Football; Track; "Lightnin'". An all around "practical Art" from the Practical Arts Department.

WINNIFRED A. MacDONALD

"Winnie". Hockey; Basketball; Varsity Team; "Lightnin'".
In all sorts of weather "Winnie" is the same,
She can do any kind of homework,
And she can play any kind of game.

CHARLOTTE B. McGINN

"Lottie". "Lottie" may be quiet, but a few of us have heard her make some real noise.

REGINA R. McGRATH

FRANCIS L. McGRAW

"Buzz".
We get into a fight,
And look like a sight.
But such things must be
When our rival we see.

RALPH MacKAY

"Mac". Football; "Lightnin". As hero of "Lightnin", he did something that we know he would like to do in real life.

RUSSELL A. MacKENZIE

"Mac". A firm believer in the maxim, "Silence is Golden".

OLIVE H. McKIE

"Mickey"; "Shrimp". Biography Aid; Mandolin Club; College Club. Olive may be no linguist, but she's got some line.

CHARLES MacKINNON

"Mac". In spite of his silence, "Mac" was an unquestionable authority on everything from lights to spring-cleaning.

DOROTHY M. McLAUGHLIN

"Dot". "Blue and White" Staff. Follow "Dot" and you follow the style.

BERTHA C. McLEAN

WILLIAM E. McMAHON

"Bill". Cheer up, "Bill", size isn't everything.

JEAN MACMILLAN

"Jeannie". "Jeannie" doesn't talk much; her typewriter does it for her.

THOMAS P. McNAMARA, JR.

"Tom"; "Mac".
Of fun there was no lack,
In "Tom", better known as "Mac".

ALFRED J. MAGGIOLI

"Al".
"Al" always looks so nice and trim;
What would the girls do without him?

JAMES J. MAHER

"Red"; "Jimmie". "Jimmie" put Barnum to shame when it came to a matter of tricks.

INEZ E. MAHOGANY

"I".
In Inez we can find no flaw;
And how that little girl can draw!

JAMES E. MAHONEY

"Jim". "Jim" is the Larry Semon of Room 16. He went out for track but decided to save his energy for college.

ANNA MALONEY

"Ann". College Club. Dramatic Club; Normal School Club; Swimming. In Room 4, Ann has learned not only American History but the latest method of sending messages to her sister student.

BARBARA H. MATHER

"Babs". Advisory Board; Glee Club; Dramatic Club; "Lightnin". "Bab's" ready reply, "So's your old man".

AVIS L. MEACOM

"Dolly". Basketball; Class Note Aid. "Dolly" liked room 16 so well that she refused to leave—just couldn't help hanging around every noon.

BERNICE W. MEANS

"Bunny". Biography Aid; College Club; Dramatic Club; Debating Club. If the styles in Paris were like that, We're glad you bought only the hat To wear in "Dangerous Waters".

SALVATORE MERCURIO

"Mercury". How did you get the drag in History, "Mercury"?

EDGAR J. MICHELSON

"Mike". Baseball; Football. He makes good tackles—tackles errands, too.

SETRAK B. MINAS

"Judge". Cheer Leader; Biography Aid. "Judge" sets styles in red neckties and slicked hair. He believes that the "oily" bird gets the worm.

GERTRUDE M. MOBILIA

"Gertie". Biography Aid. "Gertie" believes in the policy of "keeping busy at all times". The teachers even call her "secretary".

MORIARTY

WILBUR A. MOLDT

"Sinbad". The future athletic coach.
He used to be a sailor.

CARROLL F. MONTAGUE

"Monty". Track; Cheer Leader. We wonder why "Monty" wore wing collars to the football games.

GLADYS A. MORAN

"Gladie". Senior Play. The big girl with the little voice.

ADA M. MORIARTY

"Toots". The most promising girl.
Look out, Mary Pickford!

JAMES V. MORIARTY

"Jim". "Gentleman Jim". The Ladies' Man.

THEODORE C. MORRILL

"Babe". College Club; "Lightnin";
"Blue and White" Staff. The studious boy. A good student; a brainy fellow knows when to work and when to play.

JAMES MORTON

"Jimmie". Dramatic Club; College
Club; Football; Senior Play; Biography Aid. The class spendthrift—spent every minute of the last four years.

ANNETTE M. MOZZICATO

"Milkie". "Blue and White" Staff;
"Review Staff".
From Seventeen to Sixteen,
She went dashing to and fro,
And those who'd seen her smile once,
Never liked to see her go.

MURPHY

MURPHY

JOHN D. MULLINS

"Rusty". Rusty's freckles didn't harm his popularity.

DONALD E. MURCH

"Don". College Club. He didn't go out for track but he should have.

GEORGINA A. MURPHY

"George". Hockey; Normal School Club. She doesn't have to wait until she's a teacher to have class.

JOHN J. MURPHY

"Murph". He smiled at everyone, but everyone liked him just the same.

MARGARET J. MURRAY

"Peg". This "Peg" is a good mixer. She gets along with everyone.

RUTH L. MURRAY

"Ruthie". Ruth's the only thing that didn't get spoiled in the lunchroom.

CARL M. MYDANS

"Tar". The Flaming Youth. He knew the flame test, but tried it in the wrong room.

JOHN L. MYERS

"Java". What does John lean against outside of school.

DOROTHY E. NEWTON

"Dot". Household Arts Club; Basketball. She wears nice things in the right way. Who is her tailor?

WARREN E. NUTTER

"Snitch". Baseball. Football. The leading batter, champion gum chewer, and fast half back.

JOHN T. R. O'CONNELL

"Jack". Class Prophet; Track; Orchestra; Dramatic Club. In History, the facts he could tell, His language, he always knows well, In English, he knows what to say, And surely he knows how to play In the Orchestra.

MAY C. O'CONNELL

"May". Glee Club; Dramatic Club. May never talked very much, but her cheery face brightened many a corner.

THOMAS W. O'CONNOR

"Okie". Baseball Captain; Football; Basketball. "Okie" made a good captain for our 1926 Baseball Team and he certainly deserved the position.

HELEN E. O'DAY

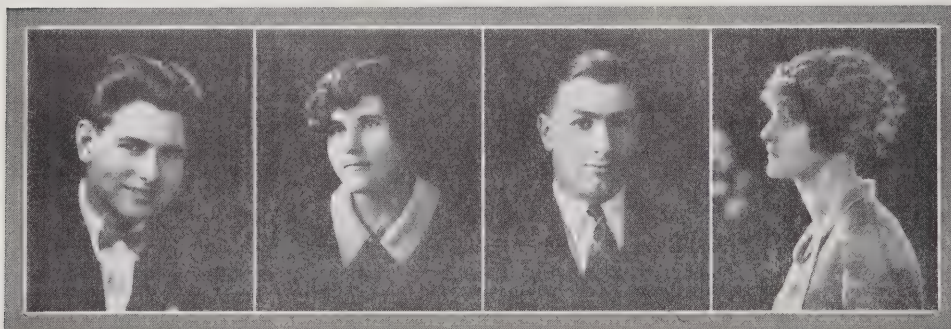

"Hel". Class Note Aid; Dramatic Club. When the rest of the Period II History class gets stuck, they ask Helen; she always knows.

CLARE T. O'DONOGHUE

"Clay". College Club; Class Note Aid. "Clay" was one of the two roses among so many thorns in IV-E History.

DOROTHY G. OSBORNE

"Dot". Dramatic Club; Household Arts Club; Hockey. Quiet in school, but when she's outside, "Oh boy! what a girl".

EDITH A. OSGOOD

"Eddie". Editor-in-Chief of the "Review"; College Club; Delegate to the School Magazine Convention at Columbia University. She knew what she wanted in Physics Laboratory; she got it, too.

ALICE E. PACKARD

"Al". Dramatic Club; College Club. "Al" was always up to the minute.

NORMAN E. PARHAM

"Bo". Dramatic Club. "Bo" Parkham, a likeable chap, with a ready smile.

ALTHEA L. PEARSON

"Al". Dramatic Club; College Club; Hockey; Basketball; Class Note Aid. Impulsive, earnest, prompt to act, And make her generous thoughts a fact.

ELIN M. PETERSEN

"Elie". Dramatic Club. A girl who has so many pleasing, winsome ways.

EMMA A. PETERSON

"Pete". "Blue and White" Staff; Dramatic Club; Basketball.

A girl with a host of friends,
Who strives and gains the ends.

CATHERINE T. PETTEE

"K". College Club; Dramatic Club; Outing Club; Hockey; Basketball. The only girl taking solid geometry; we wonder if she will beat the boys building bridges.

ROBERT K. PHELAN

"Bob". Dramatic Club. His favorite expression as a tennis fiend, "Love 15". Is it a question or a statement?

ERNEST A. PHILLIPS

"Ernie". Dramatic Club; Track; Baseball. With "Ernie's" running ability, care should never overtake him. It hasn't yet.

EDITH L. PIERCE

"Edie". Class Essayist; "Review" Staff; College Club; Orchestra. Edith's ability both as student and musician has put her in the front ranks.

MARGARET M. POWERS

EDWARD M. PRITCHARD

"Ed". "Blue and White" Staff; "Review" Staff; Orchestra; College Club; Electrician for "Lightnin". A thinker, a talker, a doer.

GRACE E. PURINTON

"Gracie". Household Arts Club. A great little pal when you know her well.

JOAN RASMUSSEN

"Jo". Glee Club. A winsome maiden, yet so shy, One carelessly might pass her by, Nor know what treasure he had lost.

NORMA M. RATHBUN

"Norm". She should have been a newsboy, the way she ran 'round the school carrying papers.

MARY E. RENNIE

"May". Has she accepted the verdict that girls cannot be truck drivers?

WALTER E. RICHARDSON

"Blubber". Football. Track. Six foot two— And handsome, too.

DORA R. RISMAN

"Dolly". Household Arts Club. A tiny happy miss, whom everybody knows.

RUTH E. ROBERTON

"Rufus". Biography Aid; Mandolin Club; Dramatic Club; College Club. You fooled the teachers with your quiet exterior, but we know better.

ALICE E. ROBERTS

"Ally".

As a friend she is true,
And in all that we do,
She is ready to help us,
And willingly, too.

FRANK ROGIER

"Frankie". "Frankie" doesn't need an answer book—he lets George do it.

ELEANOR E. ROLAND

"Roly". Glee Club; Dramatic Club. "Roly" will be a big success in the business world if she keeps all appointments as she does those with "Marge".

BYRON A. ROSCOE

"Red". College Club; Dramatic Club; Senior Dance Committee, Chairman; Football. "Red's" supply of pictures didn't meet the demands of his many friends among the fair sex.

MELVIN ROSS

"Mel".

"Bill" and "Mel" may not be sharks,
But they've broken all the blueslip marks.

JOSEPHINE A. ROSSELL

"Joe". Dramatic Club; Household Arts Club. So little noise was made by "Joe". That she was there, we'd hardly know.

GEORGE H. RUGG

"Ruggsie". Orchestra; Track. Here's hoping you make a broad jump to success.

ESTHER A. SAMSON

"Cutie". Basketball; Dramatic Club. Sweet and cute, that's the way we'll always remember Esther.

STEPHEN J. SANDS

"Steve". Don't hide your talent any longer. We know you are a fine violinist.

T. FENWICK SANFORD, JR.

"Fen".

Quiet and kind,
With a serious mind.

MILTON J. SAWYER, JR.

"Milt". "Blue and White" Staff; "Lightnin'"; Dramatic Club; Track; "The Champion"; "Brewster's Millions".

An all 'round "champion",
We saw him on the stage,
We're sure he'll champion every cause for right
All through the coming age.

MILDRED SCRANNAGE

"Mil".

Glee Club.
She's quiet sometimes,
Downcast never,
But sweet always.

DUNCAN P. SHENK

"Dunc". Class Note Aid; Dramatic Club; Track. "Dunc" enjoys life because he can't help it. He never learned to worry.

ALTON E. SHERMAN

"Al". Football. "Al" was an End in Football, but a beginner of classroom mischief.

HELEN L. SHUFELT

"Snooks". Household Arts Club; Glee Club; Normal Club. "Lightnin'". Always a leader in the many things to which she turns her hand.

ERNEST G. SMITH

"Smucks". Biography Aid. He must be a good scout, for he's a leader in scouting.

VIVIAN E. SMITH

"Smitty". "Blue and White" Staff; Dramatic Club. A quiet, ambitious girl, always willing to lend a hand.

ALMA E. SNOW

"Al". "Blue and White" Executive Committee; Secretary of Senior Class; Dramatic Club; Debating Club; Basketball; Captain "Gym" Meet. If a person's popularity is proved by votes, "Al" passed the test on the class ballot for secretary.

LEONA SPINNEY

"Lona". Biography Aid; College Club; Basketball; Tennis; Hockey. Persevering and gritt, A manner so charming and pretty.

ALICE M. SPRAGUE

"Al". We have learned in the short time Alice has been here, That her presence always means a smile and good cheer.

LOUISE G. SPRAGUE

"Sprague". Household Arts Club. Her delight is in doing good for others.

ANNIE L. STARR

"Shrimp". Class Note Aid; College Club. One of the two bright "Stars" in the Senior Class.

ERNEST D. STARR

"Zeke". College Club; Biography Aid. No matter what "Zeke" attempts to do, he is sure to shine.

DOROTHY H. STONE

"Dot". Dramatic Club. "Dot" was no rolling stone, and she gathered plenty of the moss of learning in school.

FRANK STORELLA

"Frankie". "Frankie" has learned how to mind his own business; so much so that his room-mates hardly know he is there.

CAROLYN STURDIVANT

"Bang". Dramatic Club; "Brewster's Millions"; "Lightnin'"; Class Note Aid. "Bang" is a very promising girl; she promised her picture for the last six months—to one of the fellows, anyway.

SULLIVAN

GRACE SULLIVAN

"Shrimp". Basketball; Hockey; Normal School Club; College Club; Captain Gym Meet. Not large but powerful.

LAWRENCE F. SULLIVAN

"Pip". Football. "Pip's" special training in the summer keeps him cool on the football field.

MARY C. SULLIVAN

"Sully". Class Note Aid.
A bright cheerful girl,
Always with a smile,
Ready to cheer you onward
Over many a weary mile.

REBECCA SULLIVAN

"Sally". Basketball; Hockey; "Brewster's Millions"; "Lightnin'". "Sally" has a happy faculty of doing the right thing at the right time.

GEORGE H. SWIMM

"Swimmy". Dramatic Club. "Swimmy" is the "half-pint" which causes a peck of trouble.

GEORGE S. TEKMEJIAN

"Tek". Dramatic Club; Publicity Committee, "Lightnin'" and "The Champion"; "Blue and White" Staff. Even "Tek's" enemies admit he's a good artist.

GERTRUDE E. THORSON

"Gert". Dramatic Club. "Gert's" ambition is to be a private secretary. We envy the man who gets her.

MILDRED N. TIBBETTS

"Milly". Biography Aid; Senior Advisory Committee; Basketball; Hockey; Dramatic Club; Household Arts Club. Milly is right there when it comes to athletics and leadership. A good reason for the "most popular girl".

TULIN

HELEN A. TRAVIS

"Trixie". Biography Aid. "Trixie" is quite an accomplished girl. She writes a little poetry, draws a little and drives a Ford—which in itself is no mean art.

ALICE R. TREBINO

"Al". She didn't have to go to gym for training—her flying locks took care of all her exercise.

MARGARET M. TREPANEY

"Peggy". Debating Club; College Club; Glee Club. "Brewster's Millions"; "Lightnin'"; Biography Aid. Her voice, her manner, and her very self Proved there was no other Better we could find
To take the place of "Mother"
In "Lightnin'".

CLARA M. TULIN

"Tilly".
Her faculty to beguile.
Must be governed by that smile.

RUTH VASSALLO

"Ruthie". Basketball; Swimming; Hockey; Cheer Leader. This former athlete from Malden has done a good turn for Medford.

MARIETTA E. VERNAGLIA

"Marie". Hockey.
Into our midst from the Latin in Boston
She came, she stayed, and she won.

WILLIAM S. VINCI

"Big Boy". Orchestra. "Big Boy" should leave the soft hats in room 2 alone. Perhaps he intends to use them when he becomes a figure in History.

LAWRENCE M. WARD

"Wardy". Baseball.
Over and over again, in a joyous gale
He showed his pleasure while working with Mr. Dahill.

WILLIAM A. WARD

"Bony". Dramatic Club; Football; Basketball Manager; Debating Club; "Review" Staff; "Blue and White" Staff. Popular, confident—the people's choice. A debater in and out of school.

WINFIELD WEBBER

"Winnie". Gift Committee. We look forward to an elevator to the third floor installed by our engineer, Webber.

BERNICE WIER

"Bernie". Class Note Aid. If people were judged by the noise they made, Judgment would not be fair for this unassuming maid.

MATILDA WEISS

"Tilly". Normal Club. In scholarship and fun, she won. She won lap after lap, While we looked on in awe, And watched her black eyes snap.

PHILIP A. WEYMOUTH

"Phil". Dramatic Club; Debating Club; College Club; "Brewster's Millions"; "Champion"; Glee Club; "Blue and White" Staff. We never hear from some people, they're so still, But this is not true of "Phil".

DORIS A. WHITE

"Dotsy". Household Arts Club. Her facial expressions register her approval of oral themes.

MARION S. WILSON

ROBERT M. WINN

"Bob". Football; Basketball; Track;
Dramatic Club; Treasurer. Nothing gets by "Bob", ask opposing half-backs.

RUTH M. WINN

"Ruthie". Basketball. Ruth Winn is bound to win.

FRANCIS W. WOLFE

"Frank". "Frank" was not a talker, but we know something he said.

GEORGE E. WOOD

"Woodie". George could if he would,
and would if he could—do anything you asked of him.

DOUGLAS C. WOODMAN

"Doug". Never judge the book by its cover; never judge the man by his name.

MILDRED WRIGHT

"Middy". Field Hockey. The girl who knows how to typewrite and to write right.

MARGARET F. YOUNG

"Younger". Biography Aid; Household Arts Club; Cheer Leader.
Full of life, full of pep,
We wonder if she ever sleep.

ZARELLA

ZIMBOLDI

ALPHEUS ZARELLA

"Zeke". "Zeke" never thrust himself on anyone, but he was always ready when needed.

ANDREW A. ZIMBOLDI

"Zim". Dramatic Club; Biography Aid. We think that Zimbaldi has the kind of spirit that will "engineer" any enterprise.

The Classs of 1926 instituted a Class Day, a custom which we hope will be continued by the classes which come after us. The exercises were held on the lawn; the Junior Class was in charge of the arrangements, acting as marshals and ushers. The Ivy Oration was delivered by Margaret Trepaney; the Class Will by Warren Looney.

We wish to thank Ruth Vassallo for her efforts in behalf of the swimming team. The girls did not organize the team as a sport so that we were unable to have a picture for the "Blue and White."

The "Review" has, we hope, set a precedent this year in entering the contest of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, and in sending delegates to the Association's Convention at New York City. Although competition for the prizes is keen, it is not at all impossible that the "Review" may in the future succeed in winning such an honor. This, at any rate, is our hearty wish.

Class Notes

Once upon a time:

Miss Small strolled along the corridors.

Miss Lyons was in Room 12 and the windows were closed.

A class was so interested in what the teacher was saying that it didn't hear the bell ring.

Maurice Herbert stood perfectly still when he recited.

Frances Davis didn't offer a single comment during the period.

Okie O'Connor wasn't singing.

Phillips wasn't wanted at the office.

Dolly Risan had a pencil in biology.

McGraw didn't know his physics.

Joe Furst gave a book report without once looking at his feet.

Miss Smyth considered a recitation perfect.

Norman Hall had a suit which really fitted him.

Elvira Harty recited without blushing.

Olive McKie didn't say, "um".

Miss Gannett wore a dress which was neither brown nor henna.

Connie Ritchie wasn't in a jolly mood.

Miss Small conducted a class using the pantomime system.

Mr. Merrill didn't laugh at one of his own wise cracks.

The signal rang for opening the windows and a teacher really did open them.

ALUMNI DEPARTMENT

1926

We hear from William Ward, head salesman of the Packard showroom in Boston, that he recently sold a Packard Eight roadster to Edward Pritchard who now travels on the Keith Circuit as a monologist.

Among the newly published books are "Fine Points of Etiquette" by Robert Phelan and "The Einstein Theory Explained" by Ada Moriarty.

Edith Pierce writes from New York that she has been forced to build an addition to her "Happy Home for Homeless Cats," an institution which is supplying a long-felt need.

Winnifred MacDonald is conducting gymnasium classes here in Medford; we have been told that she has inaugurated a new system by having her pupils use rolling pins instead of dumb-bells in their exercises; she says she believes her plan will be of more use to them later in life.

Claire O'Donohue is having great difficulty as head nurse of the Lawrence Memorial Hospital; her patients refuse to go home and the authorities have made a rule that a patient must be killed or cured in three months.

William Hanley is a professor in a correspondence school, which gives courses in chemistry.

Audrey Forrest is touring the country for the purpose of lecturing on the "Revival of the Old-Fashioned Dances."

Thomas MacNamara and Ralph MacKay are partners in an enterprise to furnish the Eskimos with electric fans.

John Crowley, a popular announcer from WEAF, has often been described as the man whose voice put the "loud" in the name, "loud speaker."

Milton Sawyer has a position in a watch factory in Waltham. He says it is very congenial work, for he always did like to keep an eye on the clock.

Frances Davis is Dean of the College of the Spoken Word.

Eva Gustafson is one of the most famous of the Zeigfield Follies girls, she is playing Broadway as leading lady in "Fluffy Ruffles."

From Florida James Dincolo writes that he has secured a job with Ringling Brothers Circus as a living skeleton.

Robert Doe has won the roller-skating championship of the United States; in a few months he will sail for Europe to seek the championship of the world.

Harold Mann is employed as an efficiency expert by the Jasper Ball Company of Boston.

Althea Pearson is editor of the "Gossip of the Town" column of the "Boston Post". Catherine Brown writes death notices for the same paper.

Another member of the newspaper world is Albert Farnham who is the "Aunt Emily" of the "Lonely Hearts" department of the "Boston Advertiser."

Robert Adams is Speaker of the House of Representatives. According to all reports from Washington, Mr. Adams lives up to his title.

The announcements of several engagements and two weddings have been sent in but lack of space prevents our printing them in this issue of the "Review."

WHY TEACHERS GROW FAT

THE GRAND MARCH—LASTED ALL EVENING

Teachers' Baseball Team

For the catcher, choose Miss Porter
 She's quite tall and very spry.
For first baseman, try Miss Bowker
 She'll keep them all from getting by.
For second base, Miss Lyons
 Is the best we have about.
While on third base put Miss H. H. Small
 She'd talk the fellow out!
Take for pitcher, Mr. Merrill
 Who we know will do quite well
Judging by the way he throws his slams,
 In school, he will be swell.
Then for outfielders the Misses Ross and Kelley draw a tie,
 For they'd never, we are certain let a single thing go by.
At the bat there'll be a student
 Who will pile up a great score,
As he knows for him these traps are set
 And also many more.

A Tragedy In One Act

Setting: Front steps of M. H. S.

Time: A school day—1:50.

Characters: Mr. Kadesch, Tom MacNamara.

Circumstances: Mr. Kadesch emerges with stately step from front door, finding Tom playing catch with a couple of kids.

Mr. Kadesch: "You college students certainly have little to do! If I had anything to say about it, I should see that you had enough to do without playing ball with children. What college did you attend?"

Tom (sweetly): "I go to Medford High School!"

Mr. Kadesch: "Well, a little exercise in the fresh air will be good for you."

A Nightmare

I had a nightmare the other night. I dreamed that I was passing through Medford Square and as I reached our Fairbanks, the clock in front of the Cooperative struck twelve o'clock, midnight. At the sound of the last stroke, I caught sight of all the members of our beloved faculty dancing about the silent policeman in the middle of the square. I Collett a shame that they should do such things at night and then act so sanctimoniously during the day; at least they ought to hire a Hall or find a vacant Field and not disgrace the school in so public a place. They certainly were raising Helen Lyons were running around loose. One of the creatures was rather Small, and seemed to be a general favorite, for I saw several teachers Patten him on the head.

Quite a young teacher, merely a Ladd, had bought a basket of lunch from a Baker and our instructors stopped their cavorting long enough to eat. I noticed that they had spaghetti and that Bennett a lot of it, even if he is Irish. The other teachers ate so greedily that Mr. Roberts got nothing but the "Pickens" and there were quite a few Battles before he got that much.

When they finished eating, they began to sing "Merrill-ee we dance along," giving me a chance to observe their clothes; Ralph Ken-dall up, I'll tell the world; his tie must have blinded the man who wove it. Soon speeches were in order (the dream began to seem very real). Mr. Carey recited "Over the Hill to the Poorhouse" as a picturesque ending to his speech on the slimness of teachers' salaries; Mr. Kadesch in a grave way suggested longer hours, more studies, and firmer discipline for students; the bookkeeping teacher, Olsen of a gun, cried: "Bravo!"

My prolonged shuddering at the idea woke me up, and I haven't dared to go to sleep since.

Tuesday morning a regular assembly was held. The students marched into the hall to the strains of the "Prisoner's Song" played by the Harmonica Club whose members were chosen at the close of a tournament to determine the school's most skilful players. Edward Harris, Francis Griffin, Robert Winn, Warren Nutter, James Carew, and Edgar Michelson were the winners of the contest.

Mr. Kadesch spoke briefly upon some matters which he considered vital; then he introduced the pupils who were upon the stage. George Marsh spoke on "When Witty Remarks Are Not Funny"; Robert Loveland's topic was "Why I Always Prepare My French Assignments"; Carolyn Sturdivant gave a few comments on "How I Got My 'A' in Chemistry"; William Ward's title was "Silence is Golden"; with his eyes on Mr. Kadesch, Richard Harlow brought the program to a close by singing a solo, "The Hours I've Spent With Thee."

The assembly was dismissed as the harmonicas struck up "Show Me the Way to Go Home."

T'was many and many a year ago
That Medford High was founded,
But the same old books and the same old desks,
Like the teachers, still cling round it.

Mr. Walker: "If I find sixteen on the paper and the answer should be twelve, what shall I do?"

Al Farnham: "Subtract four."

Mardulier: "What do you think of Mr. Battles, the new teacher?"

Looney: "Well, his name doesn't sound promising."

We suggest as a star at kicking,
To use on the football team,
Mr. Leonard; he has daily practice
In the lunchroom at one fifteen.

Mr. Wilson: "Sopranos, 'I love thee only.'"

There's lots of 'lectricity up in the Lab
Way up in Room twenty-five,
And the teacher up there needs some of it bad
To remind him that he's alive.

Mildred Holland (reading a letter describing the teachers of M. H. S.):
"In Medford High we have some very nice teachers."

Miss Porter: "Pleace go to the dictionary and read to the class the first definition of 'nice'!"

Mildred: "Foolish."

Miss Porter: "Now read the corrected sentence."

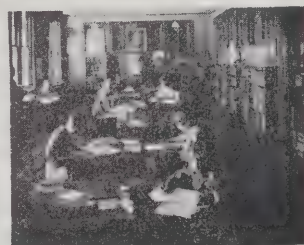

Mildred: "I don't see why I should change it!"

Said Miss Ross unto a teacher,
 “My spirits are falling through,
I cannot get enough blueslips
 To record what my pupils do!”

Miss Small: “Name a physical defect of Dr. Johnson’s.”

Althea Pearson: “He had a kind face.”

We think those lovely flowers
Which you have most every day
Are really very beautiful, Miss Flint and Miss Pied.
Mr. Olsen is quite thoughtful and generous, we’ll say
For the profit from his florist’s shop he must surely give away.

Miss Lyons thinks that a homely girl is one who loves her home, but any
M. H. S. fellow knows better.

Grace Conway: “What shall I do with this item?”

Mr. Olsen: “Charge it up to profit and loss.”

Grace: “That firm isn’t mentioned in the exercise!”

Miss Smyth: “What man was called ‘The Great Pacifist’?”

Joe Crowley: “Balboa.”

Miss Daggett: “The way to a man’s heart is through his stomach.”

Duncan Shenk: “That’s why so many girls take cooking.”

“I’m hungry,” cried a teacher
To another, in despair,
“But I dare not try our lunchroom,
For I’d surely starve in there!”

Al Sherman: “Where are these seats for the play?”

Mr. Kendall: “Oh, there’s no aisle between them, Sherman!”

Miss Lyons: “Ball, go down to the printer and tell him to send up a dummy.”

Wallie: “Probably he’ll send me back!”

She has lost it, we all miss it,
Finder, hurry and return
Miss Loftus's sweet disposition
Is what we pupils yearn.

Mrs. Webb: "If you people will exercise your tongues during the vacation, then bring them back to school to rest, you'll have enough to do and I'll not assign any homework."

In the Lunchroom only a buzz of noise
Was all that one could hear.
When suddenly, what! an earthquake?
No, just Mr. Carey did appear.

John O'Connell: "Do I get zero on that recitation?"

Miss Gannett: "Certainly, what did you expect?"

John: "Nothing."

Miss Gannett: "Well, you've got it."

Miss Lemay: "Can you give me a synonym for 'coquette'?"

Ed Michelson: "I can, but I'd rather not."

We often wondered what,
Mr. Kendall did with all our money,
We never seemed to solve the question
And for a while it looked quite funny.
But, Alas! the puzzle has been solved
And how much better we all feel
For Mr. Kendall drives to school
In a brand new automobile.

Mr. Irish: "You know it's always darkest just before dawn."

Minas: "How do you know?"

The sixth period penmanship class was shocked to hear that Mr. Blanchard had run over a chicken! ! !

Miss Lyons (discussing "Lycidas"): "Who rules over the sea?"

Harty: "Cupid!"

Wonder what's on Harty's mind!

Bill Ward, on his head, had a bump.
How come? A doorknob? A thump?
But Bill didn't refuse
To give his excuse;
A golf club can make quite a lump.

Bulletin notice: "Wanted: Girl to do light housework."

Miss Smith: "I'll say it will be 'light' all right!"

Mr. Carey: "Miss Eyrick, does Miss Thorson have a class this period?"

Miss Eyrick: "No, just English."

I had a dream, a strange, wild dream
In which Miss Smyth appeared to me;
With her winning smile and cheery beam
Said she, "That's fine, I'll give you 'C'."

Mr. Irish: "What is a boycott?"

Pete Donahue: "A boycott is a child's size bed!"

Mr. Walker: "The lives of John Adams, John Quincy Adams, and Charles Francis Adams show how very brilliant and prominent in American affairs the Adams family has always been."

The class looked for signs of brilliancy over in Bob Adams's direction and Mr. Walker added, "But once in a while it skips a generation."

They are here and there with blue slips,
Many of them in each hand;
Which goes to prove, dear reader,
M. H. S. is no freeman's land.

Mr. Gilkey (prompting a pupil): "You have forgotten 'my woman's honor'!"

Phil Weymouth (translating): "They embraced at"

Miss Loftus: "One doesn't embrace at."

Bob Loveland: "Evidently you don't know Philip, Miss Loftus!"

"Oh dear," cried Doris Brown, "what shall I do
My brand new hat is all askew!
I've done my best, I've worked hard on it
But now it looks like Miss Smyth's old black bonnet."

Miss Porter (catching sight of Barbara Mather hastily powdering her nose): "Are you improving the shining moments," Miss Mather?"

Barbara: "No. I'm improving my shining nose."

She sends them to Mr. Kendall if they haven't got their notes;
Too bad for Mr. Kendall, Miss Lemay's complaints aren't votes,
For if they were and he were candidate for President, today
He'd be the head and ruler of our dear old U. S. A.

Mr. Battles: "If you haven't any book, Carew, why don't you look on with Herb?"

Jimmie: "I have a cold, and I don't want him to catch it."

Probably you have wondered as you read these "Knocks," why we let the faculty off so easily. The answer is that we have a censor; each joke and snapshot came under the eagle eye of Miss Lyons (you all know how much gets by her) before it could be printed. The material which was considered too snappy for the "Blue and White" has been carefully preserved in an asbestos covered note book and may be viewed upon payment of the paltry sum of $5.00 accompanied by a doctor's certificate stating that the applicant's heart is strong enough to stand a great strain.

Fall from a lofty mountain,
Fall from a great wood-pile,
But don't, poor innocent freshman,
Fall for Miss Daggett's smile.

Mr. Wilson: "That wasn't very good. Go to 'H' again."

Mr. Walker: "What was Washington's purpose in crossing the Delaware?"

Frances Davis: "He wanted to get to the other side."

Miss Loftus: "LeBosquet, I do not consider a flirtation quite the subject for a formal composition."

Russell: "You tell us to write upon the subject we know best."

The scribblings all over the board
We pupils try vainly to read.
A penmanship class for Miss Clapp
To you, Mr. Blanchard, we plead.

Miss Small: "I told you people to write a story but some of you wrote essays. Herbert, do you call this theme on your trip abroad a story?"

Yicka: "Yes, a fish story. I've never been abroad."

Miss Kintz (to Tekmejian): "What are you drawing besides your breath?"

I stood in the lunchroom at noon time
Not a thing to eat was in sight;
The teachers had got there before me
And had cleaned out every bite.

Olive Bartlett: "Mr. Merrill, what's that theory about holding hands?"

Mr. Merrill: "There are a great many theories about holding hands, to demonstrate one——"

Sorry, but the bell rang just then.

Neil Elder: "The author dropped from the abstract to the concrete."

Seniors In Dramatics

Our class play, "Lightnin", a production which took Medford town by storm, was a flashing success, attended throughout both its performances by the thunderous applause of delighted audiences. Robert Doe's acting, as leading man, brought real tears to the eyes of the spectators when he delivered his pathetic speech in the courtroom. Even Margaret Trepaney, his obdurate wife, softened toward him. Although Doe's interpretation of his part was excellent, we couldn't help noticing that he was very slow of comprehension, we know many Seniors who would have been much quicker in complying with the gentle request which Margaret gave him in the last act. Ralph MacKay, the handsome hustling hero, was fully justified in his unconcealed admiration for Beth Clark, lovable as "Mildred Buckley"; we'll remember her delightful acting "always, always, always." Milton Sawyer and Harold Mann were two of the slipperiest crooks that ever worried the hero upon our M. H. S. stage. Although the "Judge", Robert Adams, and the emotional "Mrs. Davis," Carolyn Sturdivant, seemed quite unaware of the fact, nevertheless they furnished many a ludicrous scene which the audiences did not fail to appreciate. None of us will ever forget that "Peoria is a place." Winnie MacDonald was the most wide-awake stenographer we have ever seen, while we simply could not understand how Verner Frost could talk so fast. James Morton made an excellent sheriff and, in some respects, reminded us of our own local constables.

Theodore Morrill as a newspaper reporter was alert and inquisitive, ever on the lookout for a "good story." George Tekmejian, a driver with whip in hand, drove passengers to the courthouse. If they got there in time, it was not Jim's fault. "Mr. and Mrs. Harper," Albert Farnham and Helen Shufelt had troubles of their own as young married couples often do, but they "made up" in the end. Perhaps Barbara Mather, Mrs. Harper's maid, aided in the reconciliation. Florence Landers was a very capable waitress. Our President, Arthur McDermott, showed a remarkable adaptability in his portrayal of "Zeb Turner," "Lightnin' Bill's" shiftless old crony. "Where's your old woman?" Neil Elder's interpretation of "Oscar", the big Swede, was a finished performance, accent and all. Alice Carew, Rebecca Sullivan, Frances Davis, Marjorie Ellis, Gladys Moran, Alice Jewett, and Ruth Burnham were divorcees-to-be and, though they took their parts well, we hope they'll never play them in real life.

Russell LeBosquet, Richard Kimball, Mario Manfre, and John Crowley, as the silent workers behind the scenes, deserve much credit for the smooth running performances of "Lightnin'".

THE TOYSHOP

"The Sailor Doll; rough, tough, and a little saucy."—George Marsh.

"The Rag Doll; most folks like her."—Anna Manley.

"The Drum; very, very hard to beat," (and even to keep up with, as many of us would-be-physicists know.)—Richard Kimball.

In accordance with the time-honored custom, during the Assembly Period on October 9th, a Columbus Day pageant was presented; George Swim was the microscopic son of Columbus, garbed in gym bloomers; Verner Frost and Albert Farnham were monks.

At another school assembly, the "Sad Jester" was presented. James Morton was the King who found happiness in being kind to a poor beggar, John Crowley, and his blind daughter, Esther Sampson. We couldn't understand why the charms of the dancer, Mildred Tibbetts, and the wisdom of the Wise Man, Charles Cookson, failed to please the sad King. Neil Elder and Wallace Ball attended His Majesty.

In "The Champion," the Dramatic Club play, Milton Sawyer took the title role, that of featherweight champion, agile, dapper, and witty. His mother, Eva Gustafson, certainly deserves credit for the remarkable success of her son. She was the very essence of a perfect mother; her loving manner, sympathy, and charm instantly endeared her to the audiences. By his performance as "Mr. Burroughs," the "Champion's" father, Robert Doe upheld his enviable reputation as an actor of ability. Joe Crowley was, what we would call, true to type, red-headed, hot-tempered, and humorous.

Afterword

MAY we all meet with success in our varied spheres so that we can look back upon this book with pride and pleasure, to realize that M. H. S. was the foundation of our ambition and success.
